

Free Hawaiian Program for Children

Pre-school to 6th grade

(Adults and even older children can attend)

Mika'ele McClellan, Los Angeles Cultural Treasure

Hawaiian Slack Key Guitar, vocals, 'ukulele, and autoharp

The afternoon program will involve some stories, culture, and music from the Hawaiian Islands. The audience will be asked to sing along and even do some hand motions. The Hawaiian words will be explained. Depending on the time allowed, some or all of the following songs will be sung:

- Keep Your Eyes on the Hands (In English, with slack key)
- Three Blind Mice (Slack key with vocal in Hawaiian and English)
- Ke Ao Nani (Hawaiian chant with audience participation, some slack key)
- Adios Ke Aloha (Slow sing-a-long in Hawaiian and Spanish!)
- 'Elua na Pua I ke Ao (Hula song with vocal and slack key)
- Pa'ahana (Hula song & slack key, with an easy chorus to sing)
- Hele Au i Kaleponi (with 'ukulele, Haw'n & Eng: "I'm Going to CA")
- Malaguena (Well, this is really an 'ukulele instrumental....)
- Hawai'i Aloha (Autoharp & vocal. This is the Hawaiian state anthem.)
- Pupu Hinuhinu (A Hawaiian lullaby with slack key & easy-to-sing words)
